

The Authentication Life cycle

- * The Frontend registers new users
- * The backend responds with refresh token in http only cookie
 - ↳ because it's not accessible by browser
 - ↳ The hacker can't steal it
- * The backend as well sends the accessToken but the accessToken expires very fast
- * So the Frontend should refresh the accessToken every while to prevent hackers

